President's Message

Brian Malanaphy, President

Soren Burkhart, Senior Vice President and CIO of Aloha Airlines presented at last month's luncheon meeting and really did an outstanding presentation. His presentation covered some very pertinent issues facing organizations today including: outsourcing, team-building, project planning and management, vendor selection and contract negotiation, budgeting and consensus building – and he covered all of these topics as they relate specifically to justifying and implementing new IT initiatives.

This month at our next luncheon, on July 21st at the Ala Moana Hotel, we are pleased to have Mayoral Candidate Mufi Hannemann (www.votemufi.com) talk about his plans and vision for Honolulu. This is sure to be an informative and well attended event, so make your reservations early!

Mufi Hannemann is a White House Fellow, Fulbright Scholar and Harvard University Honors Graduate, and served under four U.S. Presidents. He is also the former City Council Chair and Director Hawaii Department of Business Economic Development.

Keep in mind that only early reservations (by AITP Members or Students) qualify for the discounted luncheon price of $10.

If you have any questions, concerns or suggestions please feel free to contact me. My email address is: brian@malanaphy.com
